

Athiphone Vongphukdee

Lao Lawyer

Athiphone is a member of the Lao Bar Association with extensive experience in successful arbitration and litigation matters in Laos. He handled a contract fraud case involving a Chinese national, securing an acquittal on appeal. He also handled a hydropower investment dispute that proceeded to mediation chaired by a Deputy Prime Minister of Laos, and a labour arbitration matter that resulted in a final, effective appellate judgment satisfactory to the client.

Athiphone contributed to the second edition of the Practical Guide to Foreign Investment Law in Laos, which is under revision.
